

JULIE CAMARDO-STERON
PRESIDENT OF ZWEIGLE'S, INC.

Julie Camardo-Steron serves as the 5th Generation owner and current President of Zweigle's Inc. She was born and raised in Rochester, NY and attended Mercy High School. She went on to Providence College and received a BA degree in Psychology.

After college she first worked as of the Jesuit Volunteer Corp, in Syracuse, NY running a program at the Brighton Family Center focusing on young parents. After Syracuse she moved to Maryland to pursue a career in nursing but ended up working in the staffing industry.

In 2002, Julie moved back to Rochester to work for Zweigle's. She started in the office and then transitioned to sales while both her grandfather and mother were still at Zweigle's. In 2005, Julie was named Vice President of Zweigle's. She took over as President of Zweigle's in 2009 after her mother passed away.

Under Julie the business has expanded its product offerings to include chicken sausages and meatloaf. Zweigle's will also be launching 2 new brands Mama Camardo's and Savory Sensation. The brands will add diversification with new fully cooked chicken breasts, meatballs, breakfast sausages and more. These items will help the business offsetting the seasonality of Zweigle's core business.

Julie is committed to the community where she lives. She is on the Board of Directors for Foodlink Inc. and is the current Chairperson Emeritus. She has been assisting Foodlink for over 10 years on various committees and joined the Board of Directors in 2008. Currently she serves on the MCC Foundation Gala Committee, and is a MCC Foundation Board member since 2015. She has served on the CDS foundation Board as a former member and secretary for six years ending her term in 2013. She is a strong supporter of the Golisano Children's Hospital, Susan B. Anthony Center for Women's Leadership, Strong Museum of Play and United Way. She is a current Vistage member since 2014. She has also been an active parent in the Harley School community serving as a classroom representative.

Julie has three children with her husband Scott, two daughters Elizabeth, Samantha and a son, Nathan. She supports her children in their education, sports and artistic activities. She enjoys spending time with her family and friends outside of work.
