

Robert Lewis
Business Coach and Advisor

Bob Lewis has 40 years of experience as an accomplished executive with 30+ years as franchisee with Manpower Staffing Services where he grew his firm from a fledgling $3 Million firm to $25 Million when he left. Thereafter he became a self-employment coach with The Entrepreneur's Source, an international franchise brokerage firm. Several years later he became a business coach and advisor with The Advicoach, through which he coaches and consults with small and medium sized firms to develop stronger organization plans via team building, strategic planning and sound leadership development.
