Deborah Ham Whitt Agency
Named
Microenterprise Business of the Year

From a field of 60 nominees, Deborah Ham Whitt Agency was selected as the MicroEnterprise Business of the Year by the Greece Regional Chamber of Commerce and recognized this past November at the Annual Small Business Awards, sponsored by Genesee Regional Bank. The award was presented to Deborah Whitt by Masters of Ceremonies Nikki Rudd of News10NBC and Steve Hausmann of Entercom Rochester, along with Greece Regional Chamber President/CEO Sarah Lentini, at a luncheon ceremony attended by 200 area business leaders at the Rochester Marriott Hotel. The Keynote Speaker was New York State Senator Joseph Robach.

A History of Community Philanthropy and Service

Deborah Whitt is a passionate community advocate and a long-time member and supporter of the Greece Regional Chamber of Commerce, the Greece Rotary Club, and Geva Theatre Center.

2017 Youth Hall of Fame Inductees

She strongly believes in supporting the development and education of our children and youth, and Deborah Ham Whitt Agency is a Bronze Sponsor of the 28th Annual Youth Hall of Fame, a Greece Regional Chamber initiative that brings together students, families, and business, education and government leaders to celebrate the accomplishments of high school juniors and seniors in our region.

Deborah Whitt also sits on the Greece Regional Chamber Business Advocacy Advisory Committee and recently served on a Business & Education Panel along with New York State Senator Joseph Robach, Greece Superintendent of Schools Kathleen Graupman, Bryant & Stratton Rochester Colleges Director Jeff Tredo, Hilton Superintendent of Schools Casey Kosiorek, The College at Brockport President Heidi Macpherson, Greece Town Supervisor Bill Reilich, New York State Assemblyman Peter Lawrence, Attorney Lori Parker of Parker Law office, and David Perotto of Bartolomeo & Perotto Funeral Home. The panel discussion was moderated by Entercom Radio Host Steve Hausmann and the event was sponsored by Bryant & Stratton College.
