ABOUT SEAN MCKAY

Sean McKay is the founder of Site Hub. Sean has more than ten years of experience in both development and sales. Sean McKay founded Site Hub only months after losing his father to cancer. At first, it was a way to stay busy, but his mission changed after realizing how much he liked it and so he rapidly grew the team. Today, he runs Site Hub out of a historic office space in downtown Rochester. McKay leads a strong team with a wide array of creative, development, and management skills and enjoys a clientele full of happy customers. With new opportunities and products in the pipeline, it looks like this local success story won't be ending anytime soon.
